BUSINESS PICKING UP.

ENCOURAGING OUTLOOK FOR THE FALL TRADE.

New York Jobbers and Commission Men Generally Satisfied With Their Prospects.

New York, September 6.-The Times says: New York merchants, jobbars and commission merchants are generally satisfied with the condition of trade. Business is picking up and shows in most cases a very decided improvement. Buyers for the fall trade have been and continue numerous, and in many kinds of business very late hours bave to be kept by employers to pack up and forward the goods ordered. The long arrays of boxes and cases piled up in front of business houses down town and await-ing their turn to be carted off give strong ccu'ar demonstration of a busy Loggiries among merchants corroborate the testimony of the mute witnesses. A noted feature is in the increase of orders from the South and Southwest. Toey are ordering from there not only large quantities of goods but they are also demanding the finer grades. Dry goods men say the out-lock for the fail trade with them is unusually bright. In the way of wholesale transactions the week just closed has been the largest of the season. Merchants from the West and South have nearly finished their fall buying. Only a few of them were left in the city vesterics. yesterday. Their places are being taken by merchants from less remote sections of the country. The States of Ohio, Iudians, Illinois, Michigan, Iowa, Wisconsin and Minnesota are largely represented by the merchants now in the market. Almost without exception the merchants are buying freely on account of the better outlook in their business and firmer prices of goods. Prices for general dry goods are sufficiently firm to inspire confidence. Wholesals clothing houses report business better than for many years past. The most notable increase in demand is from the South. Mer-chants estimate this increase at fully 334 per cent. The demand for clothing in the Western States is also reported good. Boot and shoe houses say: "Taking it all around, there is more doing this season than at any time previous for five years."

The wholesale hide and leather trade reports business brisk at about

Dealers in the glassware and crockery trade feel very comfortable over the outlook for the fall and winter. There has been no extraordinary demand for goods from any section, but the tendency all ever is toward better buying and increased consumption. In the iron trade the one report is that business is flourishing. Manu-facturers are busy: there is a brisk debooms do as soon as they are first discovered. Present prosperity is going to last. The leading companies report large inquiries for next year, and at the office of one leading mill director Saturday it was stated that nearly or quite all of the steel rail manufacturers, locomotive and general machinery builders now have not only enough orders booked to keep them busy all this year, but enough as well to insure well into 1887. Big orders are reported brick and remunerative. The iron, steel and metal trades generally are working now in perfect harmony. There is no cutting of ratis. There seems to be enough and more than enough for all to do. Large orders for reils may have to go to Eugland to be filled, railroads here demanding supplies faster than the crowded American mills can turn out the product. Hardware will be cheap and abundant, and the volume of business products as low as that in England. There is no prospect of a rise. The state of affairs has put a check upon production. Manufacturers say they intend to go

The wholesale grocers quote trade better than it has been at this season of the year in a long time. The to-bacco and cigar business holds its

One of the most extensive dealers in watches in Maiden Lane said yes-terday that the watch and jewelry trade, which is the first to be affected by hard times, and the last to come up, is in a better condition than it has been for many years. Inquiry among the leading representatives of the business shows a very encouraging state of things.

THE MEXICAN REVOLUTION. Great Excitement Prevailing in Ruevo Laredo,

Galveston, Tex., Septe ber 6.—A News Laredo special says: Great excitement prevails in Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, this evening over the arrival of three wounded soldiers who have just returned from a fight which the government troops had this morning near Sauce, thirty miles distant, with newsolutionary forces under the correspondent. revolutionary forces under the com-mand of the notorious "El Coyote," The fight took place about sunrise. The government troops were worsted, having two men killed and three wounded, besides several cavalry horses shot. Volunteer companies are being organized for the protection of the city, as an attack is momentarily expected by the revolutionists. Reinforcements of eighty soldiers are on the train from Monterey, which is due at 8 o'clock p.m., but it is apprehended that El Coyote will catch and destroy the railroad before the train can get in. It is reported over there that a large sum of money in the costom house has been sent to this side for safety. Inquiry at the United States Custom House shows that only a few thousand dollars have passed over, and that by private individuals. It is therefore probable the report was started to do away with the templation of the rebels ment of rents on church property to to join Coyote's forces in order to have a hand in the plundering of the Cuspromised to look into the law about a hand is the plundering of the Cus-tom House. Wounded soldiers, who tom House. Wounded soldiers, who have returned from the fight, represent that Coyo'e's forces had a lot of extra arms, and it is supposed that he expected to be joined by a good many men when he got into New Laredo. It may be that Coyote only intends to make a desperate onelaught to rescue churchmen to break away from the can National train robbery several years since. Coyote was in command of the train, but the forces now under Rodriguez, alias Coyote, are hardly sufficient or strong as to yet under-take an attack on so large a city.

THE CROPS.

The Weekly Summary of the "Farm er's Review."

Chicago, September 6.—The Farmer's Review in this week's issue will print the following crop summary:

The frost which prevailed throughout a portion of the corn belt during one night of the past week caused very little damage to the growing corn. The reports indicate that while the drouth and continued hot weather seriously injured the general prospects of corn, it accelerated the ribening of the grain, and in sections of Missouri, Karsas, Iowa and Minnesota, a portion of the crop has sufficiently matured to be beyond danger from frost. The re-ports in licate, as a whole, that the corn crop will be out of the way of fost within fifteen days if not attacked prior to then, and a large proportion of the crop cannot be seriously men-aced even now. The general prospects for the output of corn show no marked improvement. The tenor of the reports from all the States except Obio, Indiana, Michigan and Minuesota continue to predicate a short crop. In the four States named, the prospects continue favorable for a full average yield, while a majority of the counties estimate the yelld at from 45 to 65 per cent. Re-ports from one-balf of the counties would indicate a general average of 62 per cent. Twenty-six Onio counties cetimate an average of 61 per cent. Kapsas, Missouri and Wisconsin give the promise of about one-half the the promise of about one-half the usual yield. The reports indicate that the pastures are rapidly drying up, although in portions of Illino's and Iowa late rains have served to renew the grass somewhat. Early planted potators are generally good, but late planted are poor and in many districts a flat failure. The hogs are generally reported with only scattering cases of cholera as yet.

GEN. ARTHUR'S HEALTH. Gloomy View of the Ex-Presi-dent's Condition.

NEW YORK, September 6.—A Boston special to the Philadelphia Press of today, says: An old friend of ex-President Arthur, who has just returned from a visit to the distinguished invalid at New London, says the ex-President maintains at all times a forced characteristic statistics. forced cheerfulness, and still manifests the liveliest interest in current events and leading political questions of the day, discussing men and measures with all his old time keenness, yet he soon tires, his breathing becomes shorter and an enforced rest ensues. He has lost flesh until he is the mere shadow of his former self. The robust physique and florid countenance are facturers are busy: there is a brisk demand and good prices prevail. There is no indication of a big boom, but a big boom, said a leading iron man yesterday, is not wanted. When trade is good we can keep our mills steadily employed up to their limit, and then we are content. That is the case now. We have a business that is remunerative—a business that we believe bas come to stay. It does not partake of exercise continued care recarding the come to stay. Cure of a Sprain.

MACRDON CRNYRR, WAYNE Co., N. Y., February 28, 1885. Some years ago I badly sprained my stomach picking cherries, and have suffered greatly ever since. Nothing has been so beneficial as Allcock's enough crdess booked to keep them busy all this year, but enough as well to insure well into 1887. Big orders have been refused within the last week for rails. "The pig from trade was never bet er than now," were the words used Saturday by a magnate in that line. O her related industries are reported busk and remunerative.

Hardwars will be cheap and abundant, and the volume of business promises to be quite as good as last years. Prices have reached a level which dealers claim to be as low as that in England. There is no stree: Saturday he was taken ill and by Sunday night the characteristic symptoms of yellow fever had developed. The health officer removed him to St. Vincent's Hospital, where he is now lying. The steamer, hospital and boarding house have been disinfected. New York has scattered cases of yellow fever every summer. This is the first this year. The health officers do not fear that the contagion will spread, professing to believe that it can never again obtain a foothold in New York

PICNIC TO RAISE FUNDS FOR THE DEFENSE OF

The Condemned Bomb Throwers-Speeches by Mrs. A. R. Parsons and Others.

CHICAGO, ILL., September 6.-Three thousand socialists and their sympa-thizers took the train for Sheffield, Ind., yes orday morning to attend the picnic given by the Socialistic Publishing Company for the purpose of raising money for the defease of the condemned anarchists. Prominent among those there could be seen Gen.
Parsons, brother of A. R. Parsons, Ferdinand Spies and others of the former leaders. The father of Oscar Neebe and Dr. Ernst Schmidt also stracted at ention. Admiring crowds getbered around Mrs. Parsons and Mrs. Schwab, both of whom talked loudly and defiantly of anarchy, present and

After speeches by French and Germans a soug was sung to the tune of the Marseillaise with greatenthusiasm. When Mrs. A. R. Parsons stepped to the front she was greeted with applause. She was as pronounced as ever in her speech, bitterly denounc-ing the whole proceedings of the courts.

"If," said she, "there men are hung it will be foul murder. If they are hung and you people before me do not resent it powerfully and so that it will be remembered for many years to come, you are unworthy to be called men. In the words of Thomas Jefferson, that were quoted at the hay market on that historic night: "Resistance to son, hat were quoted at the hay market on that historic night: 'Resistance to tyranny is obedience to God.' If the men who have ground you under their feet for so long are not tyrants, who are? If your late action has not been obedience to God what has it hear? When the conviction of one been? When the conviction of our glorious martyrs went abroad, all over the world, Kings and Queens clapped their hands, and why? Would they have done so on hearing of the convic ion of any ordinary murderers?
No indeed. It is because they knew their own weakness and fear our s'rength that they rejoice in the downfall of our heroes. It is your duty, and I demand of you to echo the crash of those seven scaffold traps by a counter crash that all this country will hear, and hearing, tremble. You know that it is for you and our glori-ous principles that those men now suffer in their cells. See that their persecution does not go unrewarded."

The similarity of opinion between speaker and audience was evinced by wild and prolonged cheering and the waving of many red flags in the hands of excited anarchists. No more speechmaking occurred and the day found an end with much beer drinking, ac-companied by repetitions of the "Mar-seillaise" and the copious fluttering of red flags.

BLUE MOUNTAIN, MISS. Good Speech by Judge Morgan

Before a Large Audience. ICORRESPONDENCE OF THE APPRAL.

BLUE MOUNTAIN, MISS., September 1.—The Hon. J. B. Murgan, Democratic nomines for Congress, spoke here last night to a good audience. His speech was well received. His discussion of the policy of the present administration and the work of the Forty-ninth Congress was able and period and the state and present and left all feeling that the way precise, and left all feeling that the reform is indeed going on. He paid his respects to the small souled men who permit petty local prejudice to influence their votes upon great national issues, and just as he reached the climax upon this point the earth quaked, the house rocked and the chandeliers swung to and fro as if nodding a triumphant assent. Surely "truth is power." DEMOCRAT.

When We Demoralize the Stomach By excesses or imprudence in eating, we cannot hope to escape the consequences for any great length of time. The most robust digestion must succumb to abuses of that important function. But supposing that we have been foolish enough to enfeeble the stomach, is the damage irreparable? By no means. The dryspetic has only to do two things to insure his ultimate rocovery. First, he should adopt an easily digestible diet. Second, he should use with regularity and persistence Hotester's Stomach Bitters, the leading gastric invigorant of the age. The multiform symptoms of dyspensia, and the almost invariable attendant disorders, biliousness and constipation, will assured y cease to persecute the sufferer if the above advice is attended to. Who that has suffered the torments that chronic indigestion inflicts will neglect to take advantage of a remedy which, if the most positive evidence of the medical profession and the public is to be received with due oredence, is an absolute specific for the complaint. When We Demoralize the Stomach
